Associate of Arts in Tohono O’odham Studies

The Tohono O’odham Studies program will enable students and the broader community to achieve an inclusive education in the traditional and contemporary O’odham way of life. The program will build a strong foundation for students to either transfer to Arizona’s public universities or to enter the workforce in the O’odham community or in an entity that serves the O’odham community.

Program Learning Outcomes:

1. Differentiate between traditional and non-traditional O’odham customs.
2. Describe the relationship of Culture and Identity to Empowerment.
3. Analyze Present, Past and Future issues that affect the O’odham community.
4. Display communicative competency at an intermediate level in written and oral Tohono O’odham.
